Last Week: Nov 1st – Mt Mary – Water Project in Guatemala

Global Partners Running Waters, Inc. (GPRW) is a nonprofit organization, started with the purpose of building relationships through collaboration on water, food, health & education projects in Latin America. Its roots lie in the mission experiences of Sister Jan Gregorcich (SSND), who lived and worked with the people of Guatemala & Honduras during a period of 12 years.

GPRW's projects provide opportunities for people to: share cultural and spiritual resources; improve health and living conditions; enhance international dialogue; and experience the best of humanity! Since 2003, more than 50,000 people have received clean water- their lives forever transformed.

This Week: Nov 8th – 'What I used to do before I grew up' – club retirees

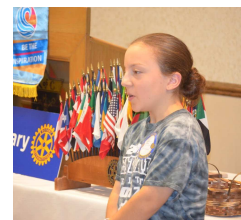

Thank you, Lisa Berman

P.S. a few funny quotes! 😊: Dear Math, Please grow up and solve your own problems, I'm tired of solving them for you. ♦ Santa saw your Facebook posts. This year you're getting a dictionary. ♦ People get lost in thought ... because it is unfamiliar territory. ♦ Math teaches you important things ... like when it is cold, go to a corner because it is 90 degrees there. ♦ Who says nothing is impossible? I've been doing nothing for years! ♦ I don't think inside the box and I don't think outside the box ... I don't even know where the box is. ♦ You know what part I like about waking up early? None ... let me go back to sleep. 😊
