President's Message

Rotary Board

Meeting minutes June 4, 2024

Present: Dan Swartz, Angela Cooper, Jim Stanford, Chad Hartman, Bill Leffler, Carolyn Worthen, Dick Leffler, Todd Loxley, Jeff Brest, Richard Regula, Kathy Shultz

Dan Swartz opened the meeting at 11:49 AM. Chad amended last month's meeting minutes by stating that Boy Scout Troop #933 camping gear was coming from the International Foundation from our share fund, not Massillon Rotary Foundation. Minutes approved by Bill Leffler and seconded by Chad Hartman. Dan Swartz stated that we will add Fairless for Students of the Month.

Chad Hartman reported that Impact Massillon went well. Approx. 20 volunteers participated and the homeowner was very grateful and happy with the service.

MOW is still looking for volunteers. Having a hard time getting people to help.

Kathy Shultz reported on membership. No new candidates at this time.

Todd Loxley announced that he was stepping away from Rotary at this time at the board accepted resignation with regret, effective June 4, 2024.

The Annual Meeting will be held at the Massillon Museum with a catered dinner by Santangelo's and beer and wine being served by the Museum.

Signup sheets will be at the weekly meetings. Also can email Kathy with dinner selection and number of attending. Members are included and guests will be $25.00.

Jim Stanford announced the speakers: June 6th – Julie from Comquest

June 13th – Richard Regula

June 20th – Alex – Food Bank

June 27th – no luncheon, annual meeting

Dan Swartz announced that the Football program was ready and Bill approved with Richard Regula seconded.

Chad and Michelle Hartman will be our delegates this year at Calgary Canada.

Dick Leffler approved and Jim Stanford seconded.

Richard presented the financials and discussion continued with the proposed New Year budget.

Richard reiterated that a Leave of Absence only relieved meals and not dues.

In continuing discussion on the budget, it was proposed that the Foundation take over the High School Scholarships.

Chad proposed that we drop all extra funding/sponsorships/donations to make the budget balance. Bill suggested eliminating the Paul Harris award recognition starting next year as this year has been set.

Chad made a motion to adjourn and Caroline seconded. Motion carried.

With respect,

Kathy Shultz
