Happy Birthday!

Last Friday the Rotary Club of Massillon hosted the Canton Rotary, the Canton mayor, the football coach and some McKinley players. Every Massillon Rotarian can be proud of the job your fellow Rotarians did in making the event a smashing success.

There were 170 to 180 people in attendance with an excellent meal provided by Santangelo's with the full cooperation of St George's Greek Orthodox Church. The Tiger Swing Band played, the cheerleaders cheered and Coach Moore came with the team captains. The speaker, Lee Owens was right on target with his talk about the greatest high school rivalry in America.

Most important was the work of Barb Schumacher who planned and organized the entire event and chaired the committee. She was really good at getting things to happen. Thank you Barb and her committee on behalf of the Rotary Club of Massillon. The committee was Jeff Stoll, Jim Stanford, Carolyn Worthen, Andrea Scassa, Richard Regula, Lauren Barbari and Chris Willoughby.

Thank you all for making us proud!
