Amy Brooks – “Unseen Arms”

Amy was born with an extremely rare condition called Tetraphocomelia--having no arms or legs. Amy was abandoned at birth and was put into the foster care system. Her foster parents eventually adopted her. She is a lifelong resident of Pittsburgh who attended Northgate High School. Amy is a joyful, exuberant and faithful Christian. Amy was an amazing person and very inspirational. It was amazing to see how she has adapted and how her parents who adopted her have helped modify their house to make her life easier. Her writing honors her adoptive family and their love for her.
