ROTARY ETHICS SYMPOSIUM 2013

Ethics in the Age of Information and Social Networking

A Symposium for
High School Students
Wednesday, March 6th
8:00am - 2:00pm
The Student Union
at Duquesne University

Each year the Ethics Symposium workshops address a host of topical issues. This year's Symposium includes a concentrated focus on topics that relate to the Internet and Social Networking and ethical issues surrounding those efforts. The workshops provide the opportunity to discuss these issues in small group settings with local experts from across the region.

2013 Opening Ceremony

Opening ceremonies will include a welcome and opening remarks by Rotary District Governor Tom Fallon and feature a "Lincoln-Douglas" debate by members of the North Allegheny High School Forensics Team.

2013 Keynote Speaker

The symposium will wrap up with lunch and a keynote speaker. While this year's keynote speaker has not yet been officially confirmed, past speakers include a who's who of prominent local figures in education, politics, and the business community.
