Rotarian of the Week: Tom Edmonds

Sharon Virts

Hostess, Author, Speaker

“Based on a true story set in antebellum Virginia, Masque of Honor is a riveting tale of romance, political intrigue, and loyalty about two sons of the aristocracy and the women they loved. Just after the end of the War of 1812, General Armistead Mason and his brother-in-law Jack Mason McCarty become embroiled in a bitter dispute that puts in motion an irrevocable chain of events—leading them to the fight of their lives and an outcome that changes everything.” Amazon.com.

“Sharon Virts is a successful entrepreneur and visionary who, after more than 25 years in business, followed her passion for storytelling into the world of historical fiction. She has received numerous awards for her work in historic preservation and has been recognized nationally for her business achievements and philanthropic contributions.” Amazon.com.

Our entire membership expresses our appreciation to Sharon and Scott for inviting us into their lovely and historic home. We look forward to her remarks this evening.

News and Announcements

Grace to Go

Rotarians Tom, Howard, Phil, John, and Steve pose after cutting gallons of carrots, potatoes, and broccoli, and baking an entire flock of now-breastless and legless chickens.

Elizabeth and daughter Noel's contribution was no small potatoes: cutting, seasoning, roasting, and preparing over a hundred helpings for St. James Episcopal Church in Leesburg.

Our collective thanks to Chris Scharrer, owner of Deli South, who makes his restaurant available to us—at no charge—for preparation of Grace to Go. Website: DeliSouth.com. Phone: 703-779-0590.
