Lisa Schnebly Heidinger's love of Arizona is as deep as her roots; the town of Sedona was named for her great-grandmother, Sedona Schnebly. For more than 30 years, Lisa has been a journalist, finding and recording Arizona's stories, first as a newspaper and television reporter, then as a columnist and author. She has written seven books about aspects of Arizona, the last one being the history of Make-A-Wish.

Lisa wrote our state's official centennial book, "Arizona: 100 Years Grand", a six-year endeavor that prevented our state from being the only one without a centennial book which drew together contributors from photographers to printers. It was voted OneBookAZ by the public in 2012.

This led to a three-month tour of Arizona libraries, from Duncan to Dewey, Clifton to Concho. Speaking to groups about where we're headed, she discovered an even deeper desire to be of service to the state. She became a Flinn Brown Civic Leadership Academy fellow and is now in Emerge in order to pursue that goal.

Lisa also serves on the Arizona Centennial Foundation, Arizona Historical Advisory Commission, League of Women Voters, and is precinct committee person in Legislative District 20. She was just appointed to the Arizona Humanities council.

Lisa lives in Phoenix with her husband Tom, son Rye Schnebly, daughter Sedona Lee, and dog Leupp.

"GRAND CANYON"

Most Tucsonan Rotarians have experienced the Grand Canyon. Certainly, Grand Canyon experiences are very personal and often difficult to put into words. We feel privileged to be RCoT Rotarians, to have the Grand Canyon and Phantom Ranch adventure, and to be led by Tom Andrews from the time he conceived our trip, made the reservations, got us in shape to hike, prepared us for the best (and the worst) and then took us down and up—20 down, 20 up. Thanks to PP Hugh Thompson and Pat Heath, The Topsiders had great hiking and much "interesting" entertainment.

You might call us a "Mutual Admiration and Appreciation Rotary Hikers Club." We'd like to share some of our email correspondence with The Tucsoarian.

PP Hugh Thompson: The Topsiders shared the wonderful Rotary camaraderie that makes this type of trip so special. Walking the 1.7 mile Trail Of Time along the rim took us through the 2 billion years of Grand Canyon history—1 million years with each step.... A 3 mile round trip hike to Cedar Ridge on the S. Kaibab trail gave us a brief touch of what our "Magnificent 20" experienced on their 5400' descent and the awe of looking UP the canyon walls. We enjoyed having Eric Peng, our exchange student, and his host, PDG Ernie Montagne. Every bucket list needs to include a Grand Canyon experience.

Cheryl House: Many, many thanks and congratulations from me (and Bob, too!) What a wonderful, life-affirming experience and I can't imagine a better group of people to have been there with. Thanks for making Bob feel so welcome. It was great to get to know your spouses, and each of you, my Rotary brothers, better. Tom Andrews gets a big group hug for putting it all together. Joining the Hiking Group is the best thing I have done in Rotary - see you on the trail soon!

Rich Flynn: It was a group adventure to begin with, and finished with a great group effort. Thank you all for your comradeship. I cherish the memories of all of us down there together.

Bobby Larson: That was a wonderful adventure that I will never forget. Thank you again so much, Tom and Hugh, for all of your efforts putting together such a wonderful experience. Getting to know so many of you so much better was just icing on the cake. Another example of why the Hiking Club of Rotary is such an integral part of my membership! I also need to thank Chuck, George, Dawn, and Robin for getting me down the last leg from The Tipoff. Not sure I would have made it without you. Also need to thank Chuck for organizing Friday's hike to Ribbon Falls. Not sure it was the best thing for my legs, but definitely the best part, for me, of all the hiking. And those Falls...WOW! Finally, my fondest and most inspirational memory: Rich Flynn blowing by us about ¾'s of the way up Bright Angel. We were definitely "trudging" along and he went by us like we were standing still. He's amazing! Thanks to all, and have a restful week.

Bill Moore: Several memories stand out: The overwhelming beauty, the feeling of honor to be in the Canyon. In spite of the aches and some very real pain, it was so worth it. But the best memory will be of the companionship and the camaraderie of the group.

PP Roger Harwell: Well said, Mr. Marine. Thanks to all for a great team adventure. "Rainbow" Larson! That name has got to stick! Clearly the opportunity to spend quality time with people we knew from "well" to "who's that?" under an exciting yet challenging circumstance was the highlight. Friendships were created and friendships expanded. Everyone benefited differently but everyone benefited significantly from the Grand adventure.

Bruce Tunze: What a fabulous trip! I especially enjoyed getting to know many of you better. Let's do it again, (but maybe let the soreness subside first)!

Mary Laughbaum: Kent and I agree! What wonderful memories!

Chuck Sawyer: Hiking in the Canyon changes forever how you view one of the World's great works of nature. By getting to the bottom of the Canyon, you somehow "own" a small part of it, in a way that is vision changing....Our Rotary team lived, laughed and pulled together in a way that created a bond with each other and with this special place. I can't wait to go again and to have my family join me.

PP Don Rollings: Companerismo is a word that I like in Spanish. It refers to a special mix of companionship and friendship. That's what Nan and I experienced in the Canyon. Please accept our thanks and a big bear hug, Canyon style. Cheers.

George Darling: Dawn and I had a great time on this trip...to Greer to hike Mt. Baldy soon. Thanks for the memories!

Tom Andrews: I will NOW accept your thanks for putting the trip together, since all 20 of us made it out of the Canyon, successfully and safely. Actually, I want to thank all of YOU for making it a pretty easy operation to set up and execute, once we were LUCKY ENOUGH to get the reservations! The more I've talked to people, both around Tucson and at the Canyon, the more I realize what a rare and wonderful opportunity we had to see Mother Nature's work in all its grandeur, and do it with extraordinary Rotarian friends and family. That's what it's all about.

Jewel and I salute all of you...Hike On!

A few of my own thoughts: The Grand Canyon and Phantom Ranch seem to speak many different languages in a very silent and visual way to many different people the world over. Thank you, Rotarians, for my own personal experience and adventure. PDG Ernie and exchange student Eric, it was special for me to socialize with you. Where else can two (three) generations and distant countries begin to know each other? To think, Tom Browning, that you hiked down to Phantom Ranch over 60 years ago with your Father. That sure puts our effort in some perspective. Thank you, Jeff, Nan, and Kent, for your prodding, encouragement, and coaching. Tom B., I will always remember Wanda's three greeting words to you when we finally surfaced at the Rim: "Tom, you're grounded!!" Let's hope not.

Last Wednesday's "Happy Hour Social Meeting" at the Barrio Brewery was a big hit for the 114 who attended. It was the first Rotary function I can recall where there were more than a smattering of members left when they started to sweep the floors! Kudo's to Darrell Stewart for organizing the event. The Blue Grass band provided perfect background music. Not too loud and very pleasant to listen to. Based on the initial feedback I have received, we will definitely look into more of this type of event in the future.

If you did not read your e-mails or see the notice on top of the bulletin, please do not come to the DoubleTree this Wednesday. Our meeting will be held at Skyline Country Club. This came about due to a mix-up with the DoubleTree on dates we had scheduled. We scrambled to find an alternative site and are happy Skyline can accommodate us. There have been a number of members who have suggested this as a regular meeting location. So, we can try it out with no obligation and see what everyone thinks. On April 10th we will be having a club assembly and will ask for your opinions about considering Skyline on a more permanent basis so please plan to attend. We will have a great program presented by Lisa Schnebly-Heidinger. Lisa wrote the state's official centennial book, "Arizona – 100 Years Grand" and will be here to talk about it. She spoke at the district 5500 conference and I have heard rave reviews.

Have a great week and see you Wednesday at Skyline!
