GHOSTS — IMAGES OF WAR

Jack Chevlen introduced long-time friend Carrie Zeidman — our speaker for today.

Carrie authored the book "Ghosts — Images of War", inspired by her travels in Europe after World War II. The Internet gives the following:

Ghosts — Images of War uses uniquely designed images of the past and present combined to take you on a haunted ride through history. By expertly superimposing and digitally manipulating historical images of the past with photos of the present, the book connects the spirit and people of history to the present day world. Almost as if you've traveled to the past, or the past has been transported to the present, the images evoke nostalgia, sadness, reflection, and hope. Battles and monuments included range from Valley Forge to the Beaches of Normandy.

After visiting concentration camps in Poland in 2008, viewing monuments and ruins filled with tragedy and despair, author Carrie Zeidman came home with unrelenting visions of the people who once occupied these spaces and whose lives were cut short. Searching out authentic photos from the Holocaust and combining them with images from her personal travels, she realized she could mesh the old and the new, contrasting the heartbreaking past with a hopeful present to create these unique images.

Today's speaker Carrie Zeidman

Unique and memorable, 'Ghosts - Images of War' is an inherently fascinating, thoughtful and thought-provoking visual experience enhanced by the inclusion of an informed and informative commentary for each visual presentation.

"Ghosts - Images of War" is one of those rare volumes that will linger in the mind and memory long after the book itself has been finished and set back upon the shelf. The book is very highly recommended for personal, community, and academic library collections." -Midwest Book Review
