UNION MIDDLE SCHOOL MUSIC RECITAL

Mike Norcia introduced Chris Kaye, Music and Wrestling teacher at Union Middle School in San Jose. Now how is that for an interesting combination of teacher specialties?

For those like the editor who do not know where this school is located, visualize Los Gatos-Almaden Road just west of Union Avenue. This is right next to the border of Los Gatos.

tographer was too slow on his feet to get a photo of the talented sisters.

Chris Kaye

Chris introduced three students and an accompanist who provided us with a delightful clarinet musical feast.

Above is Kyle Woo and accompanist Mrs. Liu. This solo was followed by a clarinet duet by the sisters Shirley and Ayane Inagake. Your pho-

The Club has really been blessed with fine music lately from our two local middle schools, and it showed its appreciation with warm applause.

NEW MEMBER PROFILE

Geraldine Arce was sponsored by Suzanne Boxer-Gassman, our President-Elect.

Geraldine comes to us with a great background in Interact. While active with Interact at Independence High School, she was involved with student government for two years. She was on the tennis team and took part in the team producing the school magazine and the year book.

Geraldine Arce

De Anza and USC were her next stops, and she graduated with a Communications major.

Geraldine studied abroad for a time. The home of Claude Monet near Paris was a special inspiration.

Back home, she got involved with broadcast journalism, and was an intern at KNTV with the show "Wine Country", and associate producer of "Comunidad del Valle".

She has been married one year, celebrating that anniversary last Sunday.

COMMITTEE FAIR

Suzanne Boxer-Gassman, our Club President next year, organized a Club first — a Committee Fair to highlight individual member interest in the various committees that make the Club go. Committee names were posted around the room, and members were each given three stickers with their name printed on them. The object was for the members to circulate and place their name on three committees that they would like to be a part of (the number three not required, just suggested).

Next week Suzanne will organize the selections and then pass on the full committee membership to Don d'Arms for publication in the new Roster.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mike Norcia, Co-chair of the Great Race, introduced Jeff Kirk of the Sunrise Santa Cruz Rotary Club. They have a race each year like we do.

Mike and Jeff have arranged a continuing competition between the two races, comparing the top three times for completing the race. Unfortunately we lost again this year.

Jeff wanted all Club members to know they are invited to participate in a July Fourth Firecracker Race. They will present the John Caldwell Cup (no, not our John Colwell) for age-graded performance. This will be the 32nd year for this race.

President Tony gave special thanks to Family BBQ Co-Chairs Angelique Pimentel and Michelle Behr for organizing a great event. Thanks also to master chefs Andrew Stearns, Paul Christensen and Greg Butterfield.
