David Riggall Gun Safety

"Hand me the Hairdryer"

Coolbuddy.com

David is a Fort Worth Police Officer and a member of the SWAT team. The Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) Section of the Fort Worth Police Department consists of officers who are specially trained to perform high-risk operations that fall outside of the abilities of regular officers. SWAT's primary function is addressing special threat situations including serving high-risk search and arrest warrants, barricaded suspects, hostage rescue, counter-terrorism, and engaging heavily-armed criminals.

David is the son of Sunrise Rotary Charter member Larry Riggall. He graduated from Lamar High School in 1992 and from UTA in 1998. David graduated from the Fort Worth Police Academy in 2004. David married Erin in 2000 and they have two daughters; Emma, age 9 and Elyse age 11.

While David works with some rough and ugly stuff, today he will be talking to Sunrise members about the significant topic of gun safety. Please join me in a Warm Sunrise Rotary Welcome for David Riggall.
