Service Above Self

Rotarians Wanted

The Gloucester Township–Pine Hill Rotary is looking for new members. By joining you can do good and have fun doing it! Below are some of our annual events:

Partnered with Gloucester Township to create and develop the Field of Dreams ball field and softball league for children and adults with disabilities.

Sponsorship of High School Interact Clubs to promote community service and leadership among the youth in our community.

Scholarships for local High School Juniors to attend RYLA, the Rotary Youth Leadership Awards program at Stockton College.

Scholarships for graduates of our local High Schools and Middle Schools.

Annual Dictionary Project where we distribute dictionaries to each third grade student in Gloucester Township and Pine Hill public and private schools.

Ralph Carter Memorial Fun Day, where we host a day trip for Gloucester Township and Pine Hill 4th grade students to Morey's Pier in Wildwood.

Sponsorship of Blackwood and Pine Hill Winter Parades.

Sponsorship of numerous local sports teams, Scout Troops and other community programs within Gloucester Township and Pine Hill.

We are able to provide these services because of the success of our annual fundraising events:

- Golf Outing
- Designer Handbag Bingo
- Pancake Breakfast
- Comedy Night Beef & Beer
