

Who's a ROTARIAN?

He's a person
in your neighborhood.

Adrenaline and small town living are a natural fit for BILL WALLNER, a tech executive and Haddonfield resident who skydives, bungee jumps, races exotic cars and competes in weightlifting championships at an international level.

“I’ve lived in Haddonfield for 18 years and really enjoy the small-town atmosphere. It is a great place to raise a family,” says Bill, who also travels, plays sports, renovates homes and especially enjoys spending time with his sons, Dillon and Jack. His favorite part of Haddonfield? The one he call home – the Roberts/Belmont Avenue area. “It’s one of the friendliest neighborhoods in town.”

Bill has worked for Avnet, Inc., an IT company, for over 20 years, managing several of their largest clients. “I truly enjoy my career and interacting with my customers. Many have become good friends,” he says. That comes as no surprise: everyone who knows Bill knows that family and friends are a huge part of his life.

So is Rotary. The Rotary Club of Haddonfield became an important part of Bill’s life eight years ago, when he first discovered just how much the organization does to improve peoples lives – locally, regionally, and internationally.

“I have always made ‘giving back’ a priority,” said Bill. “Joining Rotary and its 1.2 million members has provided me with a formal process to get involved in numerous ways and volunteer my time to help worthy causes. I enjoy the friendships with other club members and also the ability to make a difference.”

Would you like to meet Bill and other Haddonfield neighbors who work together in “doing good and having fun doing it”? Consider this your invitation to get to know us! We meet at Tavistock for lunch each Wednesday at 12:15pm. Call Ed Pfister for more details: 856-287-0325.
