Here is what's happening this week.....

Valerie Waugaman-Gal was born and raised in Cleveland, excelling in sports both in high school and college. In 2005 she earned her professional status in the International Federation of Bodybuilding and Fitness, and has been competing ever since. In 2008 she appeared as the Gladiator "Siren" on the American Gladiators revival. She is the Founder of a non-profit, FitMission, with the goal of educating people about fitness and to inspire them to improve their quality of life. Valerie is a dynamic speaker, this is certainly a meeting you don't want to miss!

Upcoming Committee Meetings:

- November 14th – Community Service Committee
- November 14th – Youth Service Committee
- November 21st – International Service Committee
- November 21st – Vocational Service Committee

District 6630 Holiday Gala - December 5th, 5:30 p.m. Windows on the River, Bridge View Room

Annual Foundation Gala, the theme this year is "Holidays around the World." Wear your ugly holiday sweater or dress in your favorite international holiday attire, be prepared to do some Christmas shopping at the silent and live auction or come home with an amazing dessert from the infamous Dessert Dash! See how our district of clubs have impacted the Rotary Foundation. Registration online at <https://www.rotarydistrict6630.org>.

Rotary Bowling

Rotary Bowling at Spins Bowls is in full swing, with 14 consistent bowlers. This past Monday, the high score for the evening was Dan Cronin's 181 in the second game. The second highest score was Julie West's 167 in the first game. Three bowlers (Jim McIntyre, Dave Skrzynski, and Ed Thomas) tied for third highest score with 159s. Bill Lindblad had his high game so far with a 111 and his high series with a 275. Mike Johns also had his high game for the season with a 145.

What you might have missed at the Rotary Club of CLE

Volunteer Day at the Thea Bowman Center – Thank you to all those that came out and gave your time to help paint the community center. We had over 15 volunteers demonstrating "Service Above Self." We will have several smaller projects available throughout the year, so if you missed this one...stay tuned....
