President Feller kicked off the meeting with John Tombarge leading the pledge. Our newest member (Ana Babiasz) was inducted with Rex Welker serving as sponsor. Rand Guebert introduced our current exchange student, Andrea, and updated the Club on our incoming student, Francisca Mendez, from Chile. Nadia Perez, sister of former outbound student Manuela, then provided an overview of her upcoming summer exchange program to Belgium, complete with slides and pics.

Health Commissioner Shelia Hiddleston was our featured speaker and provided a thorough overview of the Delaware General Health District. Their responsibilities include inspecting every restaurant, tattoo parlor, pool and grocery store in the County! They are engaged in a number of initiatives including: Healthy People, Healthy Habits and Healthy Communities. On March 19, 2014 at 1:51 pm the Delaware General Health District received national accreditation.

The District is overseen by a nine (9) member board. 54% of their funding comes from their 0.7 mill levy which has not been increased since 1984. It is up for renewal on May 6, 2014.
