July 28, 2014 – Last week we learned about the Pen Pal program, a collaboration between HelpLine/Connections, the Delaware City Schools and the Council for Older Adults. Suzanne Pingry with Helpline/Connections coordinated this effort and described the program which involved matching 5th grade students with older adults in a program that involved everyone reading the same book and then writing and exchanging letters between students and the adult volunteers. Kathy Taylor, a volunteer with the Pen Pal project, also spoke about her experience working with the 5th graders and sharing letters back and forth. She said it was a wonderful experience for her and the children and she encouraged club members over age 60 to volunteer next year.

Announcements

If you play an instrument as entertainment or hobby, such as a guitar, banjo, ukulele, drums, bass or even a washboard, or classical instruments that can join the fun, we are looking for a group to "jam" for the club at a meeting this fall. Don't be shy! Basic level and up. Email Shelia Hiddleston or Marianne Gabel if you want to join up.

We have 2 Director vacancies on the board. Larry Garrett is accepting names to present to the board President Larry reminded members we have several committees that need chairs and volunteers. Sign up today!

Rex Welker reminded members that it is time to purchase and donate school supplies for local students. Walmart apparently has a great sale on these items which you can bring to a future club meeting. Additionally, we are raising funds to purchase shoes for local youth to begin the school year. Please consider donating $30 to help with this effort.

Pieces of Eight Don Chenoweth won the weekly prize but could not find the white marble. Our jackpot continues to grow.
