Announcements:

- Dusty Hostutler reminded the group to bring 9 volt batteries to donate in honor of the District Governor's, Tara Craaybeek, visit next week.
- Mike Miller announced the Delaware Rotary Club fundraiser movie "The Veters: All We Needed" premiere at the Strand Theatre on October 8, 2015. The committee will be looking for help selling tickets and obtaining auction prizes.
- Rex Welker announced that there will be a collection of school supplies next week for People In Need.
- Phil Ranck announced that there will be a Red Badge Rotary Orientation meeting on Wednesday July 29, 2015 at 7:30AM. It will be held at Buehler's on 800 W. Central Avenue.

Program: President Dusty Hostutler introduced his topic for club assembly as "How Rotary Works". He discussed the Rotary International Convention he attended in Sao Paulo, Brazil with 14,000 plus Rotarians in the largest city in South America. He shared a video clip that represented the carnival atmosphere of the convention.

On the topic of membership, he shared the current club statistics of 89 members; and would like to meet a goal for 2015-2016 of 96 members. Dusty then had Joe Evans recognize the new members and their sponsors in the last year.

He next discussed the healthy condition of the budget which was due to an increase in the club's meal cost and lower attendance.
