Program Highlights

Mitchell Briant, Assistant VP, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Ohio, Delaware County

This chapter is the fifth largest in the country and provides mentors to children. "Bigs" as they are called, give kids love and time, encouragement and support.

This mentoring improves the well-being of children, helps them build peer relationships and improve academic attitudes and grades.

Twenty community partners help this chapter work wonders. During the past 20 years more than 100,000 kids have been mentored.

Did you know that "bigs" serve kids in school-based and community based programs?

41 kids are on the local waiting list for a Big Brother or Big Sister.

Their Amachi program serves children whose parents are incarcerated.

Camp Oty'Okwa is a BBBS camp in the Hocking Hills region offering outdoor adventure for kids. They even offer weekend hikes to guests! Learn more at <http://campotyokwa.org/>
