- Rotary Orientation will be held on October 24th at the Bob Evans on U.S. 23 in the City of Delaware at 7:30 a.m. Get you breakfast with a side of rules!
- Sheila Hiddleston reminded everyone that our meeting on October 24th will be held at the Barn on Stratford Road—not at Sourcepoint.
- Bill Williams reminded us that the Sarah Moore Home is hosting a spaghetti dinner on October 17th and to see him for tickets.

Program Highlights:

We had our Club Assembly. Sheila Hiddleston outlined the clubs "Action Plan" and detailed how our Club's goals are being met. In summary, the clubs priorities are:

- Increase membership to 100 and increase engagement of Rotarians,
- Increase Club communication,
- Enhance public awareness of Rotary's core values and our various service projects, and
- Continue mission of Rotary—Service above Self

President Hiddleston's presentation included an overview of RI changes affecting us, including 5 "Avenues of Service," instead of 4, and more flexibility in certain by laws aimed at attracting more members, e.g. more flexibility in attendance policies, etc. . . .Also, Club dues will be increased over the next 3 years culminating in a $68 increased in 2019-2020.
