The World's Biggest Commercial

by Finnegan, Lawrence

When Rotary began the fight against polio, the crippling disease affected 350,000, mostly children in 125 countries every year.

After nearly 30 years and immunizing more than 2 billion children against polio, Rotary and its partners are on the brink of making history. We are This Close. Fewer than 700 new cases were reported in 2011, and the wild polio virus today is confined to isolated pockets in only three countries.

Thanks to the efforts Of Mick Finnegan, our Club has been added to the World's Biggest Commercial. one starring thousands of people around the world. One that enables every day folk form all walks of life to join with Nobel laureates, movie stars, famous musicians and other notable people to express a united commitment to End Polio Now.

The commercial made its debut in New York's Times Square this weekend. Unable to make it to New York City? Check it out at thisclose.endpolio.org. Our pictures are at about the 60 minute mark.

High School Career Interest Fair

by Kunz-Wilkinson, Katharine

We are excited to be offering the students of Laramie County School District #1 (LCSD1) another GREAT career interest fair! South High School will be hosting its 2nd annual career interest fair for all high school-aged youth in the district on Thursday, April 18 from 11:15 AM – 2:00 PM in collaboration with LCSD1, Laramie County Community College Workforce and Community Development and the WY Department of Workforce Services Cheyenne Workforce Center.

Last year, your presence at the fair was fantastic! The attendance surpassed the committee's expectations. In our first year, we had over 1,000 students and 100 careers represented. Students' feedback was very positive and even today, students have referenced their experience at the career fair as they talk about their future plans and career choices.

For more information, Please contact Katherine Wilkinson by e-mail at kwilkinson@kkwconsulting.net.

We will be demonstrating how to use the component at the July 11th meeting.
