Nov. 3 meeting to be held at The Stanley

This week's meeting of the Rotary Club of Estes Park will be held at The Stanley Hotel. It will start at the usual time, 11:30 a.m., with lunch, compliments of the hotel management. We will meet in the Concert Hall, the building next to The Lodge.

The program's presenters will update us on what's new at The Stanley and share plans for the iconic hotel's future. Don't miss this chance to hear from the hotel's general manager and Marnie Cullen, owner John Cullen's sister.

Now, here's the important part. You need to contact Karol Rinehart, club administator, to let her know:

- if you are coming to The Stanley, and
- if you are bringing a guest.

We need a head count for meal preparation.

Please email Karol by Tuesday at:

October 27 meeting notes

President Thor Homme called the meeting to order at noon. Karen Thompson gave a unifying invocation, Dave Evans led us in singing "America the Beautiful," and Jill Zerhan handled guest introductions. There was one visiting Rotarian, Jack Dinsmore from the Longs Peak Club. Scott Thomson contributed a joke, judged to be a groaner.

Announcements

- Contact Dave Evans to receive Ernie Altick credit for Duck Race adoptions you sold that benefited the club foundation.
- Jay Haroff reported on Pumpkin Distribution Day, held Oct. 21 with the help of a dozen Rotarians. There were more students than pumpkins, but the problem was remedied on Monday. FYI: Daffney is learning how to drive!
- Next week's meeting will be held at The Stanley Hotel Concert Hall and will feature a program on the hotel's current status and its future. There will be no charge for lunch. RSVP to kj.rinehart@centurylink.net if you plan to attend and also if you plan to bring a guest. Owner John Cullen will provide lunch for up to 85 Rotarians and guests.
- Members health updates - Bob Brunson has been hospitalized, but hopes to return home soon; Jim Austin is dealing with a knee problem.
- Former club member Gary Coy's son Jason was killed in an accident. A fund has been established to help the family. Contact Anne Slack for details.
- Assistant District Governor Ron Randle will visit our club on Nov. 10.
- President Thor quizzed the club on the Polio Plus initiative. Members demonstrated their amazing knowledge of the subject.

Program

Rick Taylor introduced Clark Hodge, who presented on his non-profit, Chase the Music, which provides the gift of an original composition to children battling critical illnesses.

Adjournment

The meeting adjourned at 12:45 p.m. with the recitation of the Four-Way Test.
