Update from President Jim Whiteneck

Lori Gosselin did a wonderful job on Thursday discussing Building Community during the Digital Age. It was a very appropriate topic as we approach our Visioning/Strategic Planning process in September. Considering the future together as a Club will be exciting.

Our Zoom meeting this week which will be a brief discussion of our committees but no other program. On July 29 (the fifth Thursday), there will be no meeting.

Please remember the social gathering at our home at 5:30 p.m. on July 30! I really grateful to Anne Slack for making these arrangements. Please bring an appetizer and your beverage of choice.

Have a wonderful week.

President Jim

Program

Our speaker today is Lori Gosselin. She is the author of two books, The Happy Place and Sounding the Drum: Community Building in the Digital Age. Since 2014, she has been developing the Community building process, a method of facilitating the evolution of a group into Community. In her talks, Lori introduces the power of Community building to make organizations more cohesive, collaborative, and creative.
