President Thor Homme congratulates Doug Mann, the 2016-17 Spirit Award Winner. Trudy Collar, the 2015-16 winner presented Doug's award.

Chuck Bonza received the 2016-17 Distinguished Service Award from last year's winner, Rita DuChateau.

A new honor, the Living Legacy Award, went to Wayne Newsom. Longtime friend Bill Smith presented.

Three Rotarians in one family in our club! We're so glad you are members and also glad Pat is a frequent guest!

And, drum roll, please: The Rotarian of the Year - Gregg Jurgens. He accepted the award from last year's recipient, Longley Parker. Gregg's wife, Suzanne, now has to figure out where to display the award!

This newsletter editor/public relations volunteer was indeed surprised. Her husband now has to keep the beautiful vase filled with flowers.

Thor thanked his 2016-17 board of directors.

Kathy Groesbeck, president elect for just a few more moments, presents Thor with a Paul Harris award.

More bling for Thor: a gavel plaque honoring his presidency and a Rotary badge that reads, "Former President".

And now, Kathy's year begins! Best of luck to you, Madame President.

Assistant District 5440 Governor Ron Randle and Thor reflected on a successful year.

Pete Sumey, outgoing Foundation Board President thanked his board for their service.
