ANNOUNCEMENTS

Chris White (Opportunity to Socialize):

Gail Daugherty is hosting the next Rotary After Hours at her home (349 Rossum Drive), on Wed, Feb 11, 5:30 PM.

This is an excellent chance to get to know your fellow Loveland Rotarians! Spouses, partners, and friends are invited also. If you can, bring an appetizer or beverage to share. But if you're working full-time, please don't feel obligated to bring anything. Just come and enjoy!

(Another Sweet Opportunity): Please come to Loveland's Sweet Heart Winery on Wed, Feb 25, 5:30 PM, to meet and get to know our evening meeting Loveland Rotarians. Let's strengthen the bonds between our two groups!

Kelly Brueck (New Member Thumbnail):

Our new organizational member (Exodus Moving) Kelly shared some highlights of her life story: • One of five daughters, she was raised in Chicago, where her parents were restauranteurs.

• She is proud of her son (a mechanical engineer) and daughter (a pediatric physician). • Kelly started her new life in CO in 2014. • She lives in Poudre Canyon, and enjoys fly fishing, hiking, and bicycling. • She encouraged all of us to choose kindness over being right.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Our own Don Wells, after getting his education (political science, Western European studies), had a decades-long career in foreign service (U.S. Dept of State) - "an incredible journey for a farm boy from Illinois"! He spoke on the current state of U.S. foreign relations. Some highlights: • International relations is "not a straightforward process where people make rational decisions about anything"! • Our foreign policy swings (in its priorities) like a pendulum from one new administration to another. • Foreign policy is a complex mix of political, economic, and environmental issues. • Primary goals are always to reduce tensions and increase cooperation between countries. • Humanitarian groups like Rotary seek to influence foreign policy.
