Club Elections

An election was held at the beginning of the meeting to fill seats for officers and directors. There were no write-in votes and the Club elected the following:

Rick Parker - Co-President (2025-2026)

John Moore - President Elect

John Cheever and Doug Rutledge - Directors

Rotary Foundation Update

Alistair MacDonald shared an update on activities of the Rotary Foundation. Alistair highlighted the important work being done by Peace Colleges around the world which are supported by the Rotary Foundation.

Tour of International Rotary Headquarters

Through a PowerPoint presentation, Don Rangel reviewed the history of Rotary by showing his visit, with his wife and another couple, to the International Rotary Headquarters in Evanston, IL. Don highlighted a replica of the first meeting place for the original Rotarians and the Arch Klumph Society gallery, amongst other features.

LAST WEEK’S PROGRAM

Rotary Activities - Behind the Scenes

Jim Epstein, Cash Case,

Dixie Schmatz and Jim Kay- lor of the Membership Committee highlighted actions to help bring new members to the Club. Ongoing, new membership is essential to the sustainability of the Club and vital to continue the impact we make.

The Committee shared tools to help each member talk about the value of being a Club member. We were all asked to think about our “Why” of joining Rotary and to share that with others who we think would want to be members. The Committee’s goal is to raise membership by 25 new members annually. Members need only make contacts using the tools provided and then are encouraged to introduce prospective members to the Membership Committee - they will take it from there.
