ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thumbnail Sketches

Two of the Club's newest members shared a Thumbnail Sketch about themselves.

Tricia Vincent - Is a Colorado native and has been in northern Colorado for the past 20 years. She has a background in non-profit organizations and is a Team member at the Boys and Girls Club of Larimer County. Her children attend TV schools.

Bev Kopper - Originally from upstate New York and the birthplace of L. Frank Baum, Bev's work history is as a psychologist and social worker in education. Now retired, in Loveland, to be closer to family, she enjoys hiking, sports and serving the community.

Blue Badge Presentation

Co-President Diane Lapierre and sponsor, Jim Kaylor, presented a Blue Badge to both Tricia and Bev. Tricia is joining the 4-Way Test and Literacy committees and Bev will be joining the Teacher of the Month and Internal Communications groups.

4-Way Test Feedback

Jerry Westbrook provided feedback and comments from the recent 4-Way Test activities at Bill Reed MS.

Club Member Updates

Dr. Tello gave the Club and update on Bill Moninger and Dick Barton. Bill is unable to attend at this time but is doing well and remembers fondly of his time with Club members. Dick is improving from his accident and is looking forward to attending meetings in the future.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Journey Through Dementia

Author and caregiver Linda Osmundson shared her story as a caregiver for her husband Bob who lived with PSP dementia. A few highlights of her program included - putting yourself in the person's reality, you will eventually need help and that is o.k., so ask and, caregivers need a break so take care of yourself. Linda's book, "Papa's Changes" is on how to keep a loving relationship with a family member with dementia. She can be reached at LindaOsmundson2@gmail.com
