ANNOUNCEMENTS

Carol Stark (RI Foundation): Please read the great article about Polio Plus engaging reluctant communities (like Karachi, Pakistan) by first addressing some of their basic needs, in the January issue of Rotary magazine.

Jim Epstein (New Org Members): Four new organization members - already individual members - will be re-inducted on Jan 25. Be here to celebrate with them the start of a new type of Rotary membership !

PROGRAM

Laura Armstrong, our Scholarship Committee Chair, gave her annual update to members in the form of gratifying stories of some of our scholarship winners (in past 4 yrs) - in their own words! The live panel with 6 of these ambitious young people (incl one Zoom participant) responded to various questions, from those about their personal aspirations to how COVID has affected their lives and their college careers.

Pictured above - clockwise, left to right - are students (along with high schools & colleges presently attending) Emma Liakas (Thompson Valley H.S.~Syracuse Univ), Julia Campos (Loveland H.S.~FRCC, soon at UNC-Greeley), Autumn Zhou (Thompson Valley H.S.~Georgetown Univ), Samuel Hatton (Berthoud H.S.~CU-Boulder), Kimberly Blough (Berthoud H.S.~CU-Colo Spgs), and Becker Eli (Thompson Valley H.S.~Colorado Mesa Univ).

The chief danger in life is that you may take too many precautions.

Alfred Adler

Alfred Adler, Austrian psychiatrist and early pioneer of family and group counseling, often listened to people reflecting on their trepidation about their place in society. This motivated him to help individuals grow comfortable with risks, because adventures and unforeseen joys await those who say yes.
