ANNOUNCEMENTS: Tom Carrigan wanted to thank all of the volunteers who helped with the Turkey Bucks & Santa Bucks. In addition, the KidsPak food drive goal for March 8-10th is 30,000 pounds for the 3rd Anniversary. Share the Love is over $30,000, and through a partnership with the Ranch and Disney on Ice, KidsPak was able to send 100 kids to Disney on Ice. Judy Chapman announced that former member John Beech passed away and Dorothy Almquist (wife of Ted Almquist) also passed away. Our prayers and condolences are with both families. If anyone would like Colorado Eagles tickets for February 9th you can give payments to Jon Kindschy (please make checks out to Pat Williams).

AWARDS: Bob Ticer introduced Trevor Engelland from Thompson Valley HS who is the Student of the Month. Dick Bradsby introduced Lindsay Nelson from Conrad Ball MS who is the Teacher of the Month. Congratulations to you both!

PROGRAM: Laura Armstrong talked about the Loveland Rotary scholarship program and the wonderful news that our club has given $215,000 in 5 years. She thanked the former chairs Dan Chenowith and Dave Robinson for all of their work. Scholarships are available and come from donations from the Foundation, individual members, and individual community members. Thank you to all of the donors and the committee who made these scholarships possible! The committee is now working with the Thompson Education Foundation to streamline and manage the application and scholarship process. Besty Burns introduced five students who are recipients of Loveland Rotary scholarships (Maraia Rubin, Courtney MacEwen, Lilianna Patrick, Vivian Sotelo-Ornelas, Jaren Sturgis). The students discussed their experiences with their first year of college and how the scholarships have helped them with their plans and future education.
