ANNOUNCEMENTS

Co-Pres Bob (News for the Good of the Club):

- Help us welcome George Stroh back to our club meetings after 6 months of recuperating from health issues!
- Dick Barton is doing quite well, although still paralyzed on his life side. He is now welcoming visitors, but please schedule a visit with Carole Barton via email.
- Our Nominating Committee will meet next week after our club meeting in the MVPC Library Room.
- Everyone - please do what you can to support our fellow Rotarians in Rotary Districts 5280 and 5300 who are fast mobilizing to help victims of the horrific fires in Southern California. They really need our help. District 5280 has created a Disaster Relief directory for Rotarians to personally list any resources they can provide to those displaced by the fires. You can donate to this cause online by credit card at these districts' websites, or you can donate with a check payable to "Rotary District 5280 Charitable Foundation" and sent to 8055 W. Manchester Ave, Ste 460, Playa Del Rey, CA 90293. The tax ID (for deductions) is 95-4597691.

• A $10,000 posthumous donation to our Scholarship Fund on Roy Allen's behalf was recently made. Roy's wife Sally tells us Roy had long been impressed with the impact of our scholarships on students' lives.

• House of Neighborly Service recently thanked our club for our $2,000 donation to their Family Promise program for families experiencing homelessness.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Gary Camp, on behalf of our Fellowship Committee, opened our lively table discussions - our fond memories and reminiscences of old TV shows - with his own story of watching one of his favorites on the family's first black and white television set way back in 1957. That was Davy Crockett, on WOWT-TV, Omaha!
