ANNOUNCEMENTS

Pat Williams (Did You Know?):

Once again, Pat stumped us all with little known tid-bits about our fellow Rotarians.

Attend Meetings via Zoom!

My dental bridge fell out while I was giving a talk - for a Rotary Club!

No thanks to my brother-in-law, I earned the nickname "bucky beaver" when I was a young girl.

Steve Lemanski (Telling Our Story): Our club's public image transcends what we used to call public relations. Though Rotary's motto is "Service Above Self," that does not mean that - as an organization - we should keep quiet about all the good works we do. Please help our public image people (incl. website, social media, and committee engagement) get the story out about all the great things we are doing in Loveland Rotary Club!

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Kevin Clark (TSD Athletic Director) and staff members Andy Liddle (Loveland H.S.) and Paul Arrington (Walt Clark M.S.) delivered a presentation on "Pros & Cons of Club Sports." After showing a poignant video about challenges that parents face, they elaborated on the joys and pitfalls of heavy involvement by parents and their kids in club (privately funded) sports activities.

PROS: • Learning how to build good relationships (with teammates and coaches) is a valuable outcome. • The joy of seeing your kids pursuing their passion is real. • Kids and their parents get many opportunities to travel. • The monetary benefits of scholarships are significant.

CONS: • It's unhealthy to view kids as an investment strategy. • The cost of time and money over years can be significant and wearing. • Kids can burn-out or lose opportunities if they specialize in one sport too early.
