Co-Pres Diane (Gov Art Show): Now is a great time to become a sponsor for the 2025 Governor's Art Show! Just go to this link to find out more:

<https://governorsartshow.org/sponsorship-opportunities/>

Co-Pres Bob (Public Health Notice): Dr. Bob briefed us on the current Norovirus health risk by relating his own recent experience with it that kept him in the hospital for 4 days! Dr. Bob's advice (as a physician) to avoid this virus (which is spread from hand to mouth) is to be meticulous with washing your hands and very careful of where and what you eat.

Carol Stark (Recognition): These Rotarians received the following awards: • Matt Barber - a brand new Paul Harris Fellow • George Stroh - a PH+3 • Bill Eads - a PH+8 • David Blythin - a new Major Donor (giving more than $10,000 to the Rotary Foundation). Congratulations to our generous philanthropists!

Pat Williams (Did You Know?): Could you have guessed who these fellow Rotarians are just by hearing these stories?

*My father wrote a well-known
WWII patriotic song titled “There'll Always be a USA”!*

I once took a week off to be an extra in the filming of the TV adaptation of “The Shining”!

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Mike Baron of Fort Collins, an award-winning comic book writer shared his insights on this field: • It all started with “The Yellow Kid” comic strip (1895). • It is well-known that millions of kids learn to read through comics. • The big comic conventions known as Comic Con are thriving everywhere, even as the art form seems to be dying off (especially in print form). • Popular superhero and sci-fi TV and movie actors have edged out comic book creators as speakers at Comic Con. • Crowd-funded comic books are a new industry trend.
