THE FOUR-WAY TEST
- Is it the TRUTH?
- Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
- Is it fun?

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jim Epstein gave the club a polio update there are 125 cases of wild polio virus and 101 of them are in Syria which is up from 20 the previous year. John Moore asked members to please send in RSVPs for Valentine’s lunch or email him or Dixie Schmatz and they will get you added to the list. Lynn Matson announced that the Fort Collins Breakfast Club is selling $100 tickets for an event on March 21st for a chance to win $10,000. Rick Parker thanked everyone who helped at Turner MS for the Four Way Test and if anyone wants to volunteer the next school is Walt Clark on February 13-14th. Dick Bradsby announced that KidsPak is getting ready for the Annual Food Drive on March 6-8th. Gail Daugherty and Gary Camp inducted Mary Camp, Martha Brown and Dave Clark. Welcome to the club!

ROTARY BOARD UPDATE

Jon Kindschy updated the club on recent board decisions and actions. Financially we are on budget and in great shape. Unfortunately, our membership had resignations from 3 members but we have also accepted applications and currently have 163 active and 9 honorary members. A grant request for the Dig Deep Navajo water project was approved. Brian Nienhaus updated the club on the boards decision for new membership options for corporations. The Corporate Membership was passed by the board in 2019, and there are two options available. Please let Brian know if you or someone you know is interested.

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL

Carol Stark-Sorg announced that the club is more than half way to President Dwight’s goal and the polio plus goal has been surpassed. The December issue of the Rotarian has a good article that describes what RI does. Carol presented Fred Fishburn with a Paul Harris +2; Keith Cox joined the Paul Harris Society.

PROGRAM

Nanci Garnand introduced John Buser, the GM for TPC Colorado, and Drew Blass, who is the tournament director for TPC tournament in Berthoud, CO. John talked to the club about the TPC Heron Lakes development and what the TPC network is and the club itself. Drew also talked about the TPC Colorado Championship Pro-Am tour that Heron Lakes hosts every year.
