ANNOUNCEMENTS

Carol Stark (RI Foundation & Awards): Carol

began her remarks with the Eight Levels of Charity, a ladder with each rung representing a higher degree of virtue, first formulated by Maimonides, a 12th-century Jewish scholar:

1. Lowest: Giving begrudgingly and making the recipient feel disgraced or embarrassed.
2. Giving cheerfully but giving too little.
3. Giving cheerfully and adequately but only after being asked.
4. Giving before being asked.
5. Giving when you do not know who is the individual benefiting, but the recipient knows your identity.
6. Giving when you know who is the individual benefiting, but the recipient does not know your identity.
7. Giving when neither the donor nor the recipient is aware of the other's identity.
8. Highest: Giving money, a loan, your time or whatever else it takes to enable an individual to be self-reliant.

Additionally... Our club is nearly 1/3 of the way to meeting our $35 K goal for RI Annual Fund! Four members were honored with Paul Harris Plus awards: Glorie Magrum, Brenda Gray, David Blythin, and Julie Johnson Haffner.

PROGRAM

"Colorado State University Update," by CSU President Joyce E. McConnell, had these highlights:

- The average debt of CSU students is comparatively low.
- CSU is the No. 1 Sustainable Campus in the U.S.
- The university is among the first in the nation with a co-responder program - campus police partnering with mental health professionals.
- As of Aug 1, CSU no longer requires transfer credits (from other higher-ed institutions) for most of its online bachelor's degree programs, thereby expanding access for Coloradans!

Education must not simply teach work - it must teach Life.

W.E.B. Du Bois

W.E.B. Du Bois (1868-1963) wrote these words in response to the overemphasis on industrial training for people of color. He hoped Black Americans would not be forever held back, but reach higher levels of leadership in business and politics.
