ANNOUNCEMENTS

Brian Nienhaus (Requesting Feedback): Brian requests members to send him feedback regarding our current hybrid meeting arrangement. (Sterling, Colo. Duck Race says 'Thank you!'): Brian read a nice thank you from Kitty Peterson (on behalf of Sterling Rotary Club) for the use of some of our small ducks to make possible their very first rubber duck race.

Carol Stark-Sorg (Rotary Foundation): Last quarter, most of our members gave to the Foundation, and RI supported worldwide charities to the tune of $215M! For every dollar donated, members individually get a point; points can be used to award others with their own Paul Harris awards. New Paul Harris awards recognized by Carol: Bob Eatman (PH+6), John Stewart (PH+7), and George Stevens (PH+8). Congratulations!

Dixie Schmatz (Interact Guests): Interact students visiting this meeting: Ashley (Mountain View H.S.) and Mallory (Thompson Valley H.S.).

"A Black Brother's Journey" by

George Stevens

Highlights of George's inspiring life story included the following:

- Humble beginnings: born, raised in So. Philadelphia; schooled in West Philly (better schools); grew up fatherless; mother (who lived to age 86, well after bout with TB) believed in the value of education and instilled it in George
- Early influences: mother introduced him to the public library and joy of reading; "old-timers" taught him how to play checkers and chess
- Work ethic: took on jobs, early on, selling newspapers, pumping gas, and delivering prescriptions
- Course correction: while mom hospitalized, he joined a gang; afterwards turned life around with church, basketball, and scouting (an Eagle Scout)
- Higher education: starting with GI Bill (1968), he eventually earned Doctorate of Bus Admin (1979)
- Academic career: has enjoyed teaching and research at various universities for over 40 years
- George's testimony: "I feel SO blessed to have had the help of so many people throughout my life... First of all, I always give glory to God!"
