Inspiration

Pat Williams spoke of how we can all do better to see others and help them. We especially are failing our Elderly. Be deliberate, be kind. Choose Kindness every time.

Paul Harris Quote

"The way to war is a well-paved path and the way to peace is still a wilderness."

Teacher and Student of the month:

Our student of the month honoree, Aaron Alvarado Estrada from Mountain View High School was introduced by Moofie Miller.

The teacher honored as Teacher of the Month was Kayla Donovan from Loveland High School, who was presented her award by Jeff Swanty.

KidsPak Presentation

Tom Carrigan brought the club up-to-date on the activities of KidsPak, which is especially important during this time of loss of other sources of food for the neediest in our community. The program currently has sufficient supplies but will be pressed to keep up with demand if the shut-down continues.

Bob Tello detailed our club's celebrations of life this week, spending special time praising the contributions of our long-time member Mary Gulikson.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Our own Fellowship Committee, headed by Gail Dougherty, led a table talk on various subjects for all Rotarians in attendance. The subject varied by table, but participation was enthusiastic and engaged everyone in the room. The conversation was loud and the participation enthusiastic. It was another successful program by our fellowship committee! Fellowship is an important component of membership in the club.
