ANNOUNCEMENTS: Jerry Westbrook

wants to thank everyone who helps out with the weekly KidsPak program. Everyone is invited to the spaghetti dinner on November 15th! Nita Roy wanted to thank everyone who helped out with the Four Way Test at Lucille Erwin, the kids really enjoyed it. The next one will be at Conrad Ball on November 28th. Jim Epstein wanted to invite everyone to the Orchard Place open house on November 29th from 4:30-6pm.

SATELLITE PROGRAM REPORT: Rick

Scott updated the club on the project that the satellite club has been working on. Homelessness is a focus of the group and they chose to work with One Community, One Family. Both groups work together to help families move into stable housing. The Satellite Club invited all members to help fund the next family and support the program.

AWARDS: John Stewart awarded the first Outstanding Junior ROTC award to Abigail Wing of Mountainview High School. The club would like to commend Abigail for her service and commitment.

PROGRAM: Bob Eatman introduced Major Stacey Roestel who is the Director of Cyber Operations of the 233rd Space Communications Squadron in Greeley and Woodward. He covered the history of the Mile High Militia and the command structure. Major Roestel's division is in charge of technology that can detect a nuclear launch anywhere in the world and is the first and largest unit of this type. Cyberspace is now considered a fighting domain for the armed forces.
