ANNOUNCEMENTS

Gary Small (LRC Foundation): Dec 7 is Colorado Gives Day 2021. Between now and then is the best time to donate to your own Loveland Rotary Foundation! Per the website (www.coloradogives.org/incentive), the more we give, the more we get back! Call Gary for more information: 970-213-2938.

Dixie Schmatz/George Stroh (Inductions): We have three brand new members! Here they are...

Jim Epstein (Field Trip): The Boys and Girls Club of Larimer county has invited us to tour one of their sites in Loveland. The one-hour tour will start at 4:30 PM and the possible dates are Dec 1, 2, 3, 9 or 10. If you are interested, contact Jim (james.epstein@gmail.com) with the dates you are available. Thanks.

Carol Stark (Special Guests): We had many guests (including several spouses of members) for our special Thanksgiving meeting. Space does not permit naming them all. However, we do wish to acknowledge the 9 Rotary Anns (new widows group) present: Carol Albers, Ann Bunyan, Georgia Chenoweth, Shirley Hogan, Nancy Lubinski, Barbara Moore (via Zoom), Turid Rathbun, Betty Stewart, and Shari Wilson.

We Need You!
Please contact Irv Johnson to sign-up as a back-up meeting tech coordinator (computer/Zoom).

Public Health Order
Please wear masks again at club meetings, except when eating. Thanks!

PROGRAM

Chris White (bass) and the other quartet members - Dona White (soprano), Amy Hloucal (alto), and David Dunbar (tenor) - provided the superb music for our Thanksgiving Holiday Celebration. Between the four, they have 8 degrees in music and more than 120 years of conducting and teaching experience in music. Their selections included early American folksongs celebrating a bounteous harvest and Christmas carols.
