ANNOUNCEMENTS

Brian Nienhaus (Status of Meetings): The County’s tightened restriction on gatherings came in the wake of a COVID surge (820 confirmed new cases in Colo. last 15 days). Members will be notified by email when we are able to resume hybrid meetings.

Jerry Westbrook (100 Yrs and Counting): Club members grew to eagerly anticipate Gary Camp’s (past pres. 2013-14) jokes and stories about the exploits of a large squirrel family that lived in his backyard. In 2010, one well publicized club achievement was the delivery of 2,250 dictionaries to 25 schools in the R2-J district!

Dick Bradsby (KidsPak): Distribution may reach 1,000 bags/week soon. We will again distribute holiday dinners. The beef supplier (for beefsticks) has made a commitment for another 10 years!

Charlie Bouchard (International Exchange): We interviewed Thabata Tranjan as our next outbound student; if District approves, she may depart Aug 2021!

Dixie Schmatz (Bike Program): Loveland Satellite Club needs gently used bikes for at-risk youth. To donate, email RotarySatelliteBikes@gmail.com.

PROGRAM

Lynn Hammond, fellow Rotarian since 1960, past pres., past DG, past RI board member, and retired attorney shared insights on the past, present, and future of Rotary. Highlights of his remarks:

- From its inception by Paul Harris, in 1905, through the latter part of 20th century, Rotary evolved from a “you scratch my back, I’ll scratch yours,” somewhat elitist organization to the highly diverse, inclusive, and globally influential group it is today.
- RI struggles with limited corporate memory (accumulated institutional knowledge) due to the disparity between 2-year terms of RI board members and lifetime careers of RI staff members.
- Rotary’s biggest continuing challenge (as it is for all longtime civic or fraternal organizations) is sustaining and growing membership amid societal changes that include dwindling quality time in the average person’s life and a dislike of rituals and formalities.
- One thing that will continue to distinguish Rotary is its focus on fellowship—it uniquely affords people the opportunity to collectively serve the community.
