Plant Medicine - What Are The Alternatives?

Presented by Eric Sudhalter, owner of Orion's Apothecary and Canna World Market

Eric provided comprehensive education about cannabinoids - the individual molecules that grow with the hemp plant - and their role in supporting overall health. Eric differentiated the hemp products his store offers from the marijuana products available at dispensaries.

Eric focused primarily on the CBDs offered at his store along with functional mushrooms and other apothecary products. Orion's Apothecary is located at 270 E. 29th Street.
