ANNOUNCEMENTS: Nicole Whitenight

announced that the Fellowship Committee would like to invite more members to host the After Hours fellowships. There will be another fellowship silk scarf marbling event on March 28th from 11-1pm at Gail Daugherty's house. Jerry Westbrook read the Loveland Rotary community impact report from 2017-2018. As a club we had 554 volunteers put in 14,450 hours and this combined with both cash and in-kind donations had a total annual impact of $816,668.00. With the addition of Rotary International and the Rotary Foundation group this impact exceeds $1 million.

INDUCTION: Gail Daugherty, Gary Camp and Jerry Westbrook inducted Diane Lapierre to the club. Congratulations and welcome Diane!

CITIZEN OF THE YEAR: Bob Eatman introduced the Loveland Rotary Citizen of the Year Cliff Shultz. Cliff has been the Loveland Chorale Society director since 1991. He and the LCS mission is to entertain, educate and engage people with performances. Cliff has supported the Loveland community in many ways and has been honored for his commitment. Carol Stark-Sorg also presented Cliff with a Paul Harris Fellow for his service above self. Thank you and congratulations Cliff!

PROGRAM: Karl Muriby introduced Dave Mills who discussed his Rotary Friendship Exchange to Turkey in April of 2011. A group of 9 Rotarians from Colorado and Wyoming travelled to Turkey for the Friendship Exchange. This Exchange allows Rotarians from different countries to experience culture, community, history and customs. Dave gave us a brief history of Turkey and how the country was formed. He also had a great slideshow of different landmarks, host homes and experiences he and his wife enjoyed while in Turkey. In May of 2011, a group of Rotarians from Turkey also travelled to Wyoming and Colorado.
