President Jim Inspiration
Bob Eatman

Citizen of the Year
Alistair MacDonald

congratulated an elated Ann Bunyan, upon conferring on her our Citizen of the Year award for 2024. Alistair's remarks included these: Ann's late husband Sati ... president of this club raised money for our foundation with Indian dinners. Through our club foundation, Ann initiated a Music scholarship program. Ann founded the Rocky Mountain Chamber Singers. Loveland is a better place because of Ann Bunyan.

A Culinary Delight

Our delicious Valentines Day luncheon was catered, as usual, by the illustrious Ken and Jill Rosander and their excellent team.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Diane Lapierre (Major Fundraising): The 2024 Governor's Art Show is doing well with our club's own sponsorships, but we have a way to go (more than $14K so far, but our goal this year is $30K). Please help support this great annual event.

Gail Daugherty (Caring for Members): Gail, who so encourages our members when they need it most, is in need of more greeting cards. If you have surplus cards, please consider donating them to this worthy cause.

Dixie Schmatz (Volunteers Needed): Our Four-Way Test Middle School Program desperately needs more of us to volunteer as facilitators for the 1-hour session at Walt Clark M.S., on Wed, Feb 21. Please help!

Jim Epstein (More Club News): The week of Feb 19th is a big one! We have (1) our Kindness Week (see President Jim's email inviting all to submit their stories of random acts of kindness), (2) the Big Give Day, where our Interact Club will seek to make an impact, and (3) a training session (after the Feb 20 club meeting) on assembling the water filters procured for Mexico.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Our Special Valentine's Day Program featured, first, a delightful speech by our community's 2024 Miss Loveland Valentine, McKayley Lane. Miss Lane recounted all the many memories she has had of being thrilled by the sights and sounds of growing up in Loveland, Colorado. She also treated us to a very nice recap of the history of Loveland's Valentine Remaining Program.

Next, we were treated to a concert by the Chamber Singers of Mountain View High School, under the direction of A. J. Wulf. This superb ensemble sang a variety of choral favorites, from the Early Renaissance to our own times, ending with "Mack the Knife"!
