ANNOUNCEMENTS

John Turnage (Remembrance): John gave a touching eulogy for Sathi Bunyan, a club past president, deeply spiritual man, and Episcopalian pastor, who worked tirelessly on behalf of the poor and destitute in our community.

Mary McCambridge (RI Foundation): Reiterating the message of the district secretary’s recent email, Mary reminded us… For the next 100 Rotarians who join the Paul Harris Society (an annual commitment of $1,000), an additional $250 from the District reserve fund will be added to the Annual Fund in your name, and you will also receive 250 points towards your next PHF plus award!

Dick Bradsby (KidsPak): In January, we distributed 2,733 bags of food, 16,398 meals, totaling 13,391 lbs of food! We served 35 schools and 3 grab & go sites

Irene Josey, Larimer County Treasurer: Delivered a marvelously thorough presentation on “Pandemic Impacts on Larimer County Finances.” Highlights included these:

- The Larimer County Treasurer & Public Trustee Office handles all of the county’s investments.
- They also manage 16 different accounts in Larimer County Bank. Your money is always working due to the “Zero Balance Accounts” feature of these bank accounts. We’re always monitoring these accounts to make sure your money is secure.
- Only two counties in Colorado have the Moody’s Triple A Credit Rating, and Larimer County is one.
- Here’s a list of the many taxpayer services provided:

  - Tax Collection and Distribution
  - Investment of all funds
  - Special Assessments - PID’s, LID’s, etc.
  - Personal Property – income producing property in businesses
    - Distraints, Seizures and Sales
  - Mobile Homes
    - Moves, Distraints
  - Bankruptcy Tracking
  - Tax Lien Sale
    - Redemptions
    - Treasurer’s Deeds
  - Senior and Veteran Property Tax Deferrals
  - County Bank / Accounts Reconciliations
  - Public Trustee (July 1, 2020)
    - Releases of Deeds
    - Foreclosures
    - Cures
  - All during COVID, this office has managed an unprecedented level of communication to educate taxpayers on the rapidly changing environment.
