LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Our own Tim Sendelbach, LFRA Fire Chief, gave a highly detailed and comprehensive update on the Alexander Mtn Fire - the costs ($10.3 million), the magnificent work by fire fighters (more than 489 personnel assigned), the excellent cooperation from state and regional first-responder jurisdictions (12 air assets assigned), and the ongoing communications with elected officials, all of which was required to mitigate the terrible damage from this human-caused wildland urban wildfire (a new and dangerous trend). The sudden freeze on federal grants is now holding up $852,000 that is still sorely needed for recovery efforts.

Coordinated Response and Recovery

July 29, 2024

Presented by:
Tim Sendelbach, Fire Chief

Laura Armstrong (left) of the Heart J Center (at Sylvan Dale Ranch) was presented with checks totaling $15,000 by Dianne Lapierre (center) on behalf of Loveland Rotary Club and Loveland Rotary Foundation, and by Ramin Rostampour (right) on behalf of Thompson Valley Rotary. These much needed funds will assist the nonprofit educational center in recovering from the devastation caused by the Alexander Mountain Fire.
