ANNOUNCEMENTS: Please keep the Scudamore family in your thoughts and prayers, Judy’s service will be on March 21 at 2pm at FUMC. Bob Eatman announced that the committee is looking for Rotarian of the Year and the Quiet Rotarian of the Year and please remember to tell him why you nominated that person. Dick Bradsby announced that the Food Drive collected 30,000+ pounds of food and are still counting. Gail Daugherty and Gary Camp inducted Chad Walker as our newest Rotarian—Congratulations Chad!

AWARDS: Dick Bradsby introduced Sydney Holden from Berthoud HS who is the Rotary Student of the Month. Jeff Swanty introduced Raili Neibauer from Coyote Ridge ES as the Rotary Teacher of the Month. Thank you both and congratulations!

SPECIAL PROGRAM: Dwight Brummet and Rick Ball led a roast of Darrell Brubaker who just recently celebrated his 90th Birthday! The club sang “For He’s a Jolly Good Fellow.” Congratulations and Happy Birthday Darrell!

PROGRAM: Dr. Marc Shaffer introduced Joe Vodjansky who talked about the Safety and Security Update for the Thompson School District. Mr. Vodjansky talked about the district’s Standard Response Protocol which includes lockdown procedures, threat assessments and the Safe2Tell program. TSD does practice lockdown drills and threat assessments typically involve the School Resource Officer, counselor, psychologist, administrators, parents and any others who can help. Mr. Vodjansky also talked about the greatest challenges specific to TSD which include the use of vape pens and juuling (Colorado is #1 in the country for this problem); cell phones and the power/pressure of social media; and mental health support.
