

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

- 1 Is it the TRUTH?
 - 2 Is it FAIR to all concerned?
 - 3 Will it build GOOD WILL & BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
 - 4 Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
- (And... Is it FUN and SAFE?)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

John Turnage (Remembrance): Members were reminded of many special things about Miki Roth's life, including but not limited to these:

- born on Dec 24th, her life was a gift to others
- always loved writing and was an avid reader
- worked for Sears for nearly 30 years before starting a new career in real estate
- her involvement with charitable organizations and the chamber of commerce (having mentored Mindy McCloughan, the current president) was legendary
- an elegant dresser, a great collector, and lover of cooking, she was also a very private person

Drew Johnson (Governor's Art Show): Time is running out to raise the $20 K in sponsorships we're committed to; we need more volunteers - please help!

PROGRAM

"Gravestones & Epitaphs" by Alistair MacDonald was a walk through many thought-provoking and surprising tales of remarkable people who've been memorialized - around the world - including these highlights:

- Dunblane Cathedral (Scotland): there lies a grave for a William McCowan who fought for the 58th Massachusetts infantry in the U.S. Civil War
- Lewis and Harris Island: Donald Macleod, at only 15 years old, was its youngest soldier killed in WW I
- York Minster Cathedral (England): entire obituary is carved in stone for Lora Burton Dawnay (aristocrat)
- South Africa wine district: grave of "Sacha" bears a salutation from Prince Buthelezi, Zulu fighter during apartheid, who later become interior minister
- Prague (Czech Republic): small brass plates among the cobblestones in streets commemorate Jews deported and killed in the Nazi concentration camps
