ANNOUNCEMENTS

Doug Mannering (LRC Foundation) Resources (our $1.2 M unrestricted funds, with more in reserve) are managed well by Community Foundation of Northern Colorado, and we take an active role in investing.

Carol Stark (RI Foundation) Thanks to all of our generous contributors! Please see district newsletter to see the exciting things District 5440 is doing with Foundation grants. Our two latest honorees are:
Irv Johnson (PH+6) & Bob Eatman (PH+8).

Chris White (Fundraising Sponsorships) Here are some thoughts to live by - regarding fundraising sponsorships (Duck Race, Governor's Art Show, etc.):

- Have the mindset when approaching donors that we offer them a wonderful opportunity to address the community's and the world's most critical needs!
- Overcome fear of rejection with your passion for what Rotary does and the knowledge that 99.9% of denials are followed with a genuine expression of gratitude.

PROGRAM

The Governor's Art Show & Sale 2022 Kick-Off by our own Diane Lapierre and Nanci Garnand enticed members to step up to help with sponsorships and volunteering for this important cultural event. Highlights included these:

- This arts event, last year, attracted visitors from 40 states and 2 foreign countries - more each year (3,000 - 5,000) than any other Museum event.
- Loveland's Governor's Art Show is one of the two biggest, most popular art events in the state.
- The event is managed by both Loveland Rotary and Thompson Valley Rotary. Thompson Valley club has already reached their half of sponsorship dollars; our club remains far short. We need everyone's help!
- Time is of the essence for new sponsorships, so that decision can be made about funding the outdoor Gala party for artists and sponsors (which costs $10,000).

Please do your part to support these and more than 50 other top fine artists in Colorado!
