ANNOUNCEMENTS

Evan Patterson (Remembrance): Evan told the story of John Stewart’s life. This fellow Rotarian and friend we recently lost (Jan 30), was born and raised in Kansas City (KS), and after graduating from University of Kansas, started what turned into a long and distinguished career as an educator and school district administrator. John’s affinity for young people and empathetic nature may have had its roots in his own struggles at an early age, when his birth father left the family. Besides being a veteran (as a Casualty Clerk, he wrote the hard letters to next of kin of soldiers lost in battle), past club president, and ass’t governor, John married his college sweetheart (Betty), was instrumental in establishing Mountain View High School, and played basketball well into his 60s.

Bob Tello (COVID Update): Vitamin D-3 (avg dose of 1,000 units/24 micrograms), which has always been important to boosting one’s immune system, can fight COVID by improving prognosis, keeping patients out of ICU, and decreasing incidences of respiratory failure.

Carol Stark (RI Foundation): Carol recognized our latest Paul Harris Society awardees, who included Charlie Bouchard, Roy Allen, Dave Mills, Suzanne Peterson, and Karl Muriby.

Tom Carrigan (KidsPak): In Jan and Feb 2021, we delivered 5,600 food bags totaling 33,000 meals!

Pres. Brian (Vietnam Memorial): Mary and Gary Camp will lead our efforts to read veterans’ names (the visiting Vietnam Memorial) during Memorial Day Weekend. If interested, please contact them asap.

PROGRAM

“Governor’s Art Show & Sale 2021 Kick-Off,” presented primarily by John Kinkade, included these highlights:

- The mission of GASS is to assist and encourage Colorado-based artists.
- Last year’s virtual show was only major art show to occur in Colorado during COVID and one of few to occur in U.S.; one of two top art shows in the state!
- This year’s show (May 22 - June 27) will have a tent (on 5th St.) for annual Opening Night Gala (May 21).
- We will host two amazing legacy artists this year - Denny Haskew and Daniel Sprick.
- The committee sorely needs Loveland Rotarians to sell sponsorships and become volunteers.
