ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jerry Westbrook announced that in “Loveland & South Lifestyle” magazine article “One Heart, Two Clubs, 100 Years” article included Betsy Burns, Wilma Davis and Susan Ison. These women have contributed to Rotary, Lions Club, and the Rialto Theater respectively. These organizations and the theater were all founded in May 1920, 100 years ago.

John Stewart introduced Thompson Education Foundation Director, Kim Akeley-Charron thanked the Loveland Rotary Club for the immediacy of our help during the COVID crisis, specifically highlighting KidsPak, our Literacy project which has provided 5,000 books for students who don’t have books at home, and help for homeless students. The video will be sent to all Rotarians.

President Dwight Brummet asked that we all give a hand for the contributions of Rotary and Rotarians recently.

Dick Bradsby announced that the Student of the Month is Madison Emsing of Mountain View HS and the Teacher of the Month is Beth Shupe at Thompson Valley High School social studies teacher. Both the April and May recipients will be recognized in the Loveland Reporter Herald this weekend.

Julie Johnson-Haffner updated the progress of the COVID Response Fund. Today we have raised $11,300 from 18 donors and are able to grant $22,600 using LRC Foundation matching funds. She also announced that the foundation will soon be accepting grant requests for these funds. Thanks to all who have donated to this fund!

PROGRAM

Dave Mills gave a presentation on the New Zealand Adventure he took with his wife, Diane. Dave shared a fact-filled presentation with some outstanding slides. The presentation included the itinerary of 5 weeks of travel using 11 different Air BNB’s throughout New Zealand. The presentation included the geography, history, governance, language (slang), buildings, parks, earthquakes, plants, animals, churches, art, the native Maori people and other people they met during the trip. It was a very enjoyable and informative presentation! Thanks, Dave.
