ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dixie Schmatz & Rick Parker (Call for Help): Dixie and Rick say, “We need your help; if you have any ideas about more things we can do to engage our members, please reach out to us. And join us!” If you think you’re on too many committees right now, that’s not a problem - this group is a team (the Engagement Team), not a committee!

Tim Sendelbach (Scholarships): Tim shared the opportunity he had - and that now all of us have - to see Madison, a Loveland Rotary scholarship winner to whom Tim had awarded a scholarship a year ago (2023), now achieve a key milestone in the pursuit of her career dream (taking Tim’s job as chief of Loveland Fire Rescue Authority!). Tim was honored to give the keynote address at the graduation ceremony for the Fire Academy of Aims Community College this past May (2024).

LAST WEEK’S PROGRAM

Ron Sladek, who for the past few decades has been an historic preservation consultant for the entire Rocky Mountain region, presented the story of how Historic Larimer County came into being as a nonprofit and what it has been doing to save some of our important local historical landmarks. Their motto “connecting people to place” refers to their belief that (1) these places embody the unique identity of Larimer County and (2) preserving them brings positive economic, environmental, and social benefits to the community.
