Rotary After Hours

Many thanks go to Gail Daugherty for hosting our first post-pandemic Rotary After Hours event at her home, June 24! The smiles, laughter, and fellowship - on that cool summer evening, in a lovely setting overlooking Buckingham Lake - was so refreshing after these many months of pandemic-spurred separation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Brian Nienhaus (Thank You Message): LRC heard recently from Tyler Hensen, the coordinator of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Day event, who wrote, "Your club is made up of amazing people that I have been lucky to meet."

Mary Gullikson (Remembrance): Mary shared a touching story of how her brother Tom Thorson, a past president of Casper Rotary, was remembered (at his funeral) for having truly lived The Four-Way Test.

Julie Johnson Haffner (LRC Foundation): We are the largest club foundation in the District. Please continue to support your foundation as you always have!

PROGRAM

Here are some highlights of the talk Jim Epstein delivered on "Growing Rotary":

- All Rotary clubs need to be innovative in growing their membership, as they make such a difference in the well-being of their communities.
- Many potential Rotarians have many choices available to them in our 21st century world, and lament not having enough time. However, many of them are also looking for better choices (for their energies) and opportunities to spend time on their priorities.
- Rotary has already begun responding to this by offering new membership types, new types of clubs, and relaxed attendance requirements.
- The best new membership options are those that maintain and enhance the Main Rotary Club while addressing the needs of a new breed of members.
- Jim suggested a plan for people not interested in a noon lunch meeting, but who are enthusiastic about Rotary and would like to contribute by means of a community service membership. They would be full members of the club, actively participating in our social and fundraising events.
