Rebecca was also a Fulbright Scholar in Columbia, where she spent two years teaching English. She has an interest in the public health arena, including infectious diseases and the impacts in health of climate change. Rebecca is the 2019-2020 Rotary Global Grant Scholarship recipient working towards her Masters degree in Control of Infectious Diseases, at London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine.

PROGRAM: Scoot Childers introduced Dr. Robert Meroney who is a retired professor of engineering from Colorado State University. Dr. Meroney's topic was about Jack Slade and his work with the Overland Stage. Slade was born in 1831 and was the son of an Illinois Congressman. He killed his first man, a hobo, at the age of 13. Slade enlisted into the army in 1847 and was sent to Texas where he served in the Mexican War. He also worked as a Teamster and developed a reputation for having a bad temper. Slade became the head of the Overland Stage in 1859 through 1864. He was valued as a man who could get the job done and bring the stages through on time and intact along the Cherokee Trail. Slade was known as a great gunman but was ultimately hanged.
